Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Jordan Williams and I'm a senior computer science student. I'm an aspiring Software Engineer with a passion for problem solving. I'm a fast learner, dedicated to completing the job at hand. I'm skilled in programming languages such as C++ and Python.

I pride myself on my time management abilities. I am able to manage projects and maintain flexible, practical schedules. I work well with people as I know how to collaborate with a team in order to ensure the best results. I love to program and I love the way it continually challenges me. Finally, I love a challenge. I like to take approach things head on, rather than beating around the bush.

In conclusion, I'm a hard, but smart worker. I come up with my own innovative solutions and ideas, always doing my best. I want to learn as much as I can and improve my abilities. If you're looking to add an innovative, logical, excited member for your team, then I am your man. I'm excited to gain experience and show what you what I can do. Thank you considering me for the position and for your time. Any and all feedback is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Jordan Williams
